

Ce chapitre numerique consacre au quartier de Queen Street West est extrait du guide Ulysse sur Toronto. Il visite la section la plus connue de Queen Street West, la ou se trouvent les boites et les restaurants branches, de meme que de nombreuses boutiques de renom, et desormais le West Queen West (WQW), en pleine revitalisation, que lon surnomme depuis quelques annees le quartier des arts et du design, soit l'Art & Design District. Ici, les gens vivent a l'heure du boheme-branche. On y decouvre une panoplie de petits restos sympas qui, bien que dernier cri, nen conservent pas moins cet air de boheme artistique. Les boutiques de vetements d'occasion cotoient les boutiques de jeunes designers torontois. Et le Museum of Contemporary Canadian Art (MOCCA) sest egalement installe dans le WQW. On dit meme que la plus grande concentration de galeries d'art de Toronto se trouverait dans le West Queen West.
